December, 1975

EDITORIAL NOTES

Readers can hardly fail to notice the considerable delay of this fascicule. One of the editors being on leave for the year, the actual organization of Teiresias has fallen on the shoulders of the other [J.M.F.] who is alone responsible for the unprecedented lateness.

A number of readers have expressed interest in the proposed epigraphic addition to our pages and we thank those who have responded. At the same time we have become aware already of certain shortcomings and superfluities in the original concept. We are, therefore, redesigning the Epigraphica and have fortunately been able to add Paul Roesch [Lyon] to our editorial forces to take the epigraphic section under control. We have also decided to publish Epigraphica only once a year. For these reasons there will be no part 4 for 1975 and that year's volume closes with this fascicule.

Readers will be pleased to know that preparation of Supplement 2: The Proceedings of the Second International Conference of Boiotian Studies is progressing and should be ready for publication in the near future.
