1979

Readers will by now -- and at last -- have received Supplement 2, the Proceedings of the Second International Conference on Boiotian Antiquities. The final stages of publication (last-minute proof-reading, printing, collation, dispatch) were conducted under the direction of J. M. Fossey, with the help of L. E. Anderson, A. Bernstein, J. Edward, M. Garmaise, G. Gauvin, A. Gerolymatos, H. Giroux, B. Lamarche, S. McNabb, and M. K. Mogelonsky. The General Editor thanks them all for their Herculean efforts. The Editors of Teiresias are also extremely grateful to the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research of McGill University for a timely and generous grant, which made the publication of the Supplement possible.

From October 31st to November 4th there took place the Third International Conference on Boiotian Antiquities: this conference was supported by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, la Ministère de l'Education du Québec, and the two host universities, McGill University in Montreal and Université Laval in Quebec. It was held under the joint direction of J. M. Fossey (McGill) and H. Giroux (Laval). The General Editor, ensconced in his ivory tower, could only marvel -- recalling the work involved in directing the first two conferences -- at the efforts of the two Co-ordinators, and their faithful band of student assistants (G. Gauvin, A. Gerolymatos, and M. K. Mogelonsky of McGill, and S. Normand of Laval). Congratulations are in order to all concerned. The proceedings of this conference will be published as a Supplement to Teiresias.

Beginning with this volume, the bibliographical section will be divided into sections, Archaeological/Historical, Literary, and Varia. This should make it easier for readers to find those items which are close to their own fields of interest.
